GINDRAT FAMILY

SOUTH CAROLINA and GEORGIA

The early generations have been copied from a large chart prepared in Switzerland some years ago. Abstracts from this chart were furnished by Arnold Gindrat Talbot, of Germantown, Pennsylvania. There does not appear any mention of where this family originally lived in France. They were in Transelon, Canton of Berne, Switzerland prior to 1681.

We herewith extend our thanks to those who have cooperated in making this record and particularly to Mr. Arnold G. Talbot, Mrs. Falba Counts, Mrs. Wimberly, and Mrs. Sally Thorington. For the copies of the deeds, will, and other court records in Charleston, S.C. credit with thanks are due Miss Katherine B. Mazyck, Historian of the Huguenot Society of South Carolina.

Born in the Canton of Berne, Switzerland, baptized in 1713. He was one of the immigrants of John Pury's colony and arrived in South Carolina in 1732-1735. There is some mention that he had a brother, Pierre, who also came to America at the same time. The records do not disclose any mention of any one of the name except Abraham in the early days and this tradition cannot be verified.

The earliest definite record of Abraham is that of a grant of land containing fifty acres located in Purysburg, Granville County, South Carolina and dated 16 September 1738 and under the name of ABRAHAM JINDRA. (Land Records, Columbia, S.C., also South Carolina Historical & Genealogical Magazine, x, 215) This is the date of recording and the land may have been awarded him at an earlier date. As he was only granted fifty acres it would appear that he was not married at that date. He married prior to 1739 Susanne Marguerite, the daughter of Abraham TALLET. The said Abraham Tallet had a daughter, Marianne, who married one Stephen Vegneur, and also a daughter, Catherine, who married one Morgin and was a widow in 1759.

4 ABRAHAM (3) GINDRAT

(Henry 2, Abraham 1.) Born Purysburg, South Carolina in 1764. He moved to Bryan County, Georgia prior to 1786. Records of Bryan County, Georgia show "Sept. 1786 Abraham Gindrat of Bryan County in a suit against Paul H. Wilkins." He married 17 March 1803 Barbara, daughter of William Clark and Barbara McKay, born Georgia circa 1772 and widow of William Clark, not related. She was owner of a plantation given her by her grandfather Captain James McKay. In March 1807 there is another suit "Abraham Gindrat, executor of William Clark versus Rebecca and Henry Wood, executors of estate of Henry Wood, Senior." He was a Justice of the Inferior Court. In 1810 Samuel Dows and his wife Harriet petition the Court for a part of 100 acres of land, estate of Rebecca, widow of Thomas Day, and sister to said Harriet, witnessed by Luke Mann and signed by

A. GINDRAT

Justice Inferior Court

There is a tradition that there were thirteen children in this family, but from the date of marriage and date of death of Abraham Gindrat it is quite evident some of the thirteen are Clark and not Gindrat children. There were some four or five Gindrat children all of whom died in infancy except as given below. Abraham Gindrat died in 1811 and was buried on his plantation, Barbara survived him some years but appears to have been deceased before 1820. No record of Clark children.

On 24 January 1812 the estate of Ezekiel Stallings was administered in Columbia County, Georgia. On 7th September 1812 the estate of Ann L. Stallings was administered by Isabella Clarke and John H. Mann. Returns 1812 show bill for board for Henrietta Stallings. On 22 September 1313 is division of estates of Captain Ezekiel Stallings and Ann L. Stallings, widow of said Ezekiel, viz.: Isabella Clarke one fifth in her mother's portion; John H. Mann in right of his wife; John Gindrat in right of his wife; Charlotte and Henrietta Stallings, both under age. On 7th December 1818 he was administrator to estate of Rhoda Gilliland, deceased; on the back of this instrument is written; " See Susan R. Gilliland's Receipt to administrator." The first Sunday School was opened in March 1824 and was held in the school house of Cornelius Buck, situated on the present site of the Court Street Methodist church, John Gindrat was superintendant.

In 1825 on the visit of General Lafayette we learn from newspaper of the date ..... " The reunion between him (Lafayette) and John Caffey, Sr., Isaac Landale, John Griffin, Robert Ware, Sr., and other revolutionary soldiers was truly affecting ..... General Lafayette retired from the ball room at 11 o'clock and spent his last hour in the town at the residence of John Gindrat."

In 1828 he executed a deed of trust to Andrew Murray, of New York City conveying all his real estate, slaves, etc. for the benefit of his wife and her children. Murray died in 1836 and this trust was transferred to John H. Gindrat and Philip Raiford.

Forney, on 26 May 1862 endorsed by General Forney for appointment as second in command of William Boyles Battallion, appointment NOT made. On 27 August 1864 in a letter he writes to General Forney he states he has labored two years in the Engineer Department, he is Colonel and Aide de camp to Governor Watts. He signed this letter as "Superintendant." He took the Oath of Allegiance 8 May 1865 as Colonel and Aide de camp, Alabama Militia. A note on his papers on file in the War Department, Washington, is as follows: " He never held commission in Confederate States Army."
